Details: Come and see some of the state's most talented high school musicians perform great orchestral classics during the AA Orchestra Festival at CM Russell High School February 12 and 13, 2018. Students from Missoula Hellgate and Sentinel will join orchestras from Great Falls High and CM Russell High School for two days of music making under the batons of conductors Dr. Tobin Stewart (Montana State University-Bozeman) and Gordon Johnson (Conductor Emeritus Great Falls Symphony).

Monday night's concert will feature performances from the individual school orchestras, and Tuesday night will feature two mass orchestras led by the guest conductors. Music of John Williams, Tchaikovsky, Dvorak, Copland, Brahms, Schawrz and Johan de Meij will be performed by the combined forces. Both concerts begin at 7 pm and are free to the public.
