New Principal Selected for North Middle School

Great Falls Public Schools is pleased to announce Tara Rosipal has been selected to continue as Principal at North Middle School.

Due to a vacancy that occurred shortly before the beginning of the school year, Ms. Rosipal has been serving as the current interim principal at North. She has been working in Great Falls Public Schools for 16 years as a teacher and administrator. Ms. Rosipal began her education career in Great Falls in 2002 as a middle school teacher. In 2011, she was hired as an associate principal at North Middle School.

Ms. Rosipal's administrative experience includes: Student Services Advocate, Associate Principal, and Interim Principal.

Tara Rosipal's education: Bachelor of Elementary Music, College of Great Falls; Reading Endorsement, University of Great Falls; Master's Degree of Science in Education Learning Development, Montana State University – Northern; and K-12 Principal Endorsement, Montana State University – Northern.

Please contact Dave Crum if you would like to interview Superintendent Lacey, Assistant Superintendent Tom Moore or Tara Rosipal.
