Details:

Come out and enjoy a fantastic evening of vocal music as the Great Falls Public Schools hosts the 2018 AA Choral Festival on Tuesday Nov 12 at 6pm. Top choirs from Billings Skyview and West high schools will be joining the Chanteur and Delphian Choirs from CMR and GFHS. Each school will do a very short individual program and then the four choirs will unite into a mass choir with a guest conductor and present classic works by Palestrina, Handel, Rachmaninoff, as well as newer works by Jake Runestad and Mack Wilberg. Dr. Scott Anderson from Idaho State University will be leading the combined choirs in their efforts.

The concert is free and open to the public
